HAMRAH'S

Event benefits Women United in Philanthropy

CRESSKILL - Hamrah's, the women's specialty store in Cresskill, joined forces with (201) The Best of Bergen magazine to recently host a shopping fundraiser for Women United in Philanthropy, a women's giving circle.

"We are proud to support WUIP, which allows women to support women in need," said Lilli Hamrah. "Everyone who took part in our event, whether a host, vendor or guest, sends a powerful message to society about the importance of teaming up to benefit women in need."

"Women United in Philanthropy is about women helping women," said Maxine Frampton, director of the 100-member giving circle. "What better fit for a fundraiser than Hamrah's... with Joyce and Lilli Hamrah at the helm - two successful, dynamic women who are using their strength and resources to help raise Women United in Philanthropy's visibility and funding," she said.

The evening included a chocolate tasting provided by Xocolat Corner of Closter along with refreshments provided by Mimi's Plate of Tappan, N.Y. A raffle of Hamrah's gift certificates and an Englewood Country Club golf outing for four rounded out the evening.
