modern must-haves for family.

Bskinz - B-Active, B-You

Us moms are always trying to keep up. Whether it's with our toddlers, who insist on pulling out the trash or attempting to flush daddy's drumsticks down the toilet, or it's with our busy family agendas, or it's with one of the toughest ones on the list: keeping our bodies fit and healthy.

Ideally, I'd wake up an hour before the kids to work out and get the chores done. Go ahead, and laugh. You know you want to. Finding the time to work out is tough, and when I do find time for myself, I typically would prefer to plop on the couch and relax!

However, I've recently found a bit of motivation in the workout department. One word: Bskinz. I can't help it, I love wearing fun clothes, so why I didn't make this connection sooner, I have no idea. Bskinz provides FUN CLOTHES for keeping active! The designs are bright and very high energy, which is definitely what I need to get me going!! And I love just how comfortable they are. I'm particularly a fan of the Bskinz sports bras. They provide both support and comfort, plus an added flair you're just not going to find anywhere else. And I'll definitely be snagging a few pairs of shorts to dazzle my fall soccer team!
